Daf Yomi with Reb Zvi Gelt 5:20 pm
In Person in The Shul

Aish of the Rockies welcomes all guests and members visiting from out of town for Succos. Please note the following guidelines for participation at The Shul:

- Registration & a signed Waiver are required for attendance
- Do not attend if you do not feel well or were exposed to a Covid-positive person within 14 days
- Maintain social distance
- Masks required & use available hand sanitizer
- Children should be seated with their parents

We look forward to a joyous and inspirational Yom Tov as a community. Thank you for doing your part in keeping everyone safe.

As a reminder, since the First Day of Succos is on Shabbos this year, we do not shake the lulav on the First Day of Succos. The lulav is first taken on Sunday morning, second day of Succos, with the blessing two blessings (see ArtScroll Siddur pg. 630).

Oct 5-8: Chol HaMoed Men's Learning with the Denver Kollel at The Shul, Monday through Thursday, with a Shiur at 9:45-10:30 am. Social distancing and masks required. See the attached flier for details.

Simchas Torah celebrates the conclusion of the yearly cycle of the reading of the Torah. On the same day that the Torah is completed, it is begun again to show that Torah is always a new and desired gift for us all. The Simchas Torah Honors are available for purchase and bidding! Auction opens on Monday of Chol HaMoed exclusively via email and closes on Friday, Hoshana Rabbah, Oct 9, at noon.

Aish of the Rockies welcomes Rabbi Yossi and Mrs. Rivky Kaplan and their children to our community. Please email the Business Office (office@aishrockies.org) if you would like their contact information.

Mazal Tov to Mordechai and Karen Schweitzer upon the engagement of their daughter Yael to Yitzchok Anbibo of Mexico City, son of David and Chana Anbibo.

Aish mourns the loss of Mr. Jack Melvin Stewart, father of longtime Aish of the Rockies friend Dr. Leslie (Stuart Senkfor) Stewart, who passed away on Sept 26 in Cleveland, Ohio and the funeral was held in Cleveland on Sept 29.

As a reminder we mailed the Yom Kippur Appeal Cards this year to provide everyone with the opportunity to mark the Holy Day with Charity, Kindness and Giving. You may also donate online at <https://aishrockies.org/donate/>. We thank you in advance for your generosity. Please note, with the generosity of an anonymous donor, gifts of $360 and more are matched dollar-for-dollar and gifts of $540 and more are tripled.

The Kelim (Utensil) Mikvah continues to be open weekdays, sunrise to 50 minutes before sunset. For the door code, please call the Business Office (303) 220-7200.

Happy Birthday: Arlene Buchwald, Gail Kirschbaum, Doron Kishoni, Gratia Meyer & Orly Veta

Chag Sameach!
