Covid-19 Update: At 5:00 pm today, Friday, Nov 20, Arapahoe County will be entering risk “Level Red.” To Learn more visit <https://covid19.colorado.gov/covid-19-dial>. Aish of the Rockies is in regular contact with Tri-County Health Department to understand the legal requirements and to evaluate programs and operations against these requirements. We are committed to the safety and well being of our entire community and to the spiritual and social needs as well, mindful of both as priorities. We follow the Protocols for Programs of The Shul (visit https://aishrockies.org/wp-content/uploads/2020/10/Protocols-10_29_20.pdf) and require signups for Shabbos Services. Level Red has the following implications for our in-person programs: No personal informal gatherings; a limit of up to 50 persons for in-person services, classes, and indoor Shul events; a hybrid of online and in-person education for children ages P-12; our Business Office will primarily operate remotely. If you have any questions or concerns, please call the Business Office at 303-220-7200.

Nov 22 – Join Rabbi Menachem & Nechama Siderson for the next session of "Tefilla: Connection and Meaning," a 4-part series on prayer for the women of the community. Join them on Sundays at 8 pm for 4 weeks.
