Day 34 of the Omer

Mazal Tov to Ira Sparer on completing the Tractate Shabbos! Ira is sponsoring the Men's breakfast on Sunday morning.

Shmuel Adler is pleased to announce that he will hold his Sunday morning Beginners Gemara class in person at The Shul, starting this week, 9-10 am. We salute Shmuel for maintaining his class virtually, throughout the pandemic.

Aish of the Rockies extends an emphatic Thank You to all the volunteers who contributed their time and efforts to the Lag B'Omer celebration this week! Robert Khan, Trudy Rubinson, Dan Kopelman, the Gertz, Levi & Goldbaum teens...and many others!

The Leadership and Staff of Aish of the Rockies offers their condolence to Rabbi Menachem (Sarah) Lehrfield, upon the death of his grandfather, Rabbi Dovid Lehrfield, Rabbi of Young Israel of Greater Miami.

Happy Birthday: Amy Balaban, Marlin Barad, Rick Gershater, Chaya Major & Ricki Rest

SHABBOS YOUTH PROGRAMMING

Bnos! Girls, pre-school to 8th grade, should come to the Aish backyard from 3:30 - 4:45 pm for an afternoon full of games, stories and fun! Please call or text 720-618-7968 with questions. Bring your water bottle - it will be hot!

Please check the bulletin each week as to the scheduling of youth program which is contingent on weather and staffing availability.

This Shabbos is a Shabbos of Unity.

The entire Jewish People was struck by the tragedy of a communal loss that took place last night at the Lag B'Omer celebrations at Mt. Meron in Israel. We are shocked and deeply pained.

As a response, Rabbi Meyer is calling on our entire community and friends to reflect upon the theme of Loving a Fellow Jew As Yourself, and reinforce our unity, love, and respect for one another.

Friday, May 14 through Tuesday, May 18
